HOUSE RULES: HOUSE OF HAPPY REBELS FESTIVAL CAMPSITE 2024

To ensure that the Happy Rebels Festival Campsite (hereinafter referred to as "Campsite") is a place where everyone can have a good time, there are a number of rules that apply to all Campsite visitors.

Article 1. Legislation and Regulations

Visitors to the Campsite must behave in accordance with public order, good morals and decency while on the grounds. Visitors are obliged to comply with the regulations and/or instructions of the organisation, security, medical team and other parties involved in the Campsite.

The use of (soft) drugs is not permitted. In the event of misconduct, irregularities, urinating in public and/or violation of the house rules, visitors will be removed from the Campsite grounds.

Article 2. Own risk and liability

Visiting the Campsite is entirely at your own risk. The Campsite organization is not liable for any damage caused by visiting the Campsite or the loss and/or theft of any property during your visit to the Campsite. Damage to (temporary) objects or property and people (visitors/personnel) at the event will be recovered from the source.

Article 3. Body search, bag check and identification

The organisation is authorised to search visitors upon entry or during their stay, to inspect hand luggage, bags and/or coats and/or to ask for identification.

Article 4. Entry

Entry to the Campsite is only possible on presentation of a valid admission ticket, in combination with a valid ID. Access to the Campsite is denied to persons:

- Who cause nuisance and/or aggression in any form whatsoever.
- Who are in possession and/or under the influence of drugs.
- Who cause nuisance to the surroundings in any form.

The organisation is entitled to refuse visitors or remove them from the grounds if a visitor does not comply with the regulations mentioned in the first article or these house rules. After removal from the grounds, the visitor will no longer have access to the grounds and no claim can be made for any reimbursement of admission tickets, travel expenses and/or any other costs incurred.

In the interest of public order and safety, the organisation reserves the right to ask visitors to leave the location at any time for safety reasons. After the event, (re-)admission is then no longer permitted.

Article 5. Prohibited goods

You are not permitted to bring the following into the Campsite: soft or hard drugs, laughing gas, glassware, generators, electric heaters or air conditioners, fridges, gas and oil lamps, gas bottles, gas stoves and (disposable) barbecues, aerosols (with the exception of sun lotion, deodorant and perfume), candles, fireworks or torches, advertising material such as flyers, folders, banners (unless approved and provided with accreditation by the organisation), music speakers with a power higher than 10 W, (electric) scooters.

Article 6. Food and Drink

You are allowed to bring your own food and drinks to the camping grounds in the Campsite. Glassware is prohibited; this will be strictly controlled at the entrance. The use of BBQ's, all kinds of gas stoves and open fires are not allowed.

Food and drink is available at the Campsite. Together with House of HR, we offer a varied range of food and drinks.

Article 7. Alcohol

The organisation reserves the right not to sell alcohol in case of misconduct or drunkenness.

Article 8. Inappropriate Intimacies

We want everyone to feel safe at the Campsite. Therefore, we do not allow sexual harassment. Inappropriate intimacies include statements or actions that are sexually related, such as sexual innuendos, statements or jokes, showing or sending sexually explicit material and unwanted touching.

Article 9. Flares

Bringing flares and or other forms of fireworks onto the premises is strictly prohibited. The use of these items is not allowed within the house rules. We ask you to respect this rule to ensure that everyone is safe and no damage is done.

Article 9. Sound installations

Small portable speakers with a maximum power of 10 Watts on batteries are allowed, provided they do not cause a nuisance to other guests. The production of sound on the camp site is only permitted between 09.00 hours and 22.00 hours.

Article 9. Waste

We like a clean and healthy living environment. Throw waste into the waste bin and keep the area around your sleeping accommodation clean.

Article 10. Advertising and promotion

It is forbidden to distribute leaflets, flyers or other (advertising) items on and around the grounds without permission of the organisation. It is also not allowed to do interviews, research or (non)commercial promotion without permission of the organisation.

Article 11. Photo and film recording

Photograph, film and sound recordings will be made in the Campsite. When entering the Campsite, visitors give their tacit permission to the organization and third parties to record, reproduce, publish and/or use these recordings for promotional and security purposes. This also includes (camera) registration in the context of maintaining public order and safety on the grounds. Filming with smartphones and small recording equipment for personal use is allowed.

Article 12. Contact

In the event of a life-threatening situation, call 112.

Article 13. Other

These house rules are subject to any additional security, public order and safety conditions imposed by the government or by decision of the organization itself. The organization is therefore at all times authorized to unilaterally amend these house rules.

Article 14. Campers

No tents may be set up next to the campers. Gas installations with detachable gas cylinders are not allowed. Barbecuing is not permitted.

There will be no electricity for the campers.

Article 14. Unforeseen situation

HOUSE OF HAPPY REBELS FESTIVAL 2024

In situations not provided for in the House Rules, the organisation will decide on possible measures to be taken.
